New 4-H Clubs!

2018 is a great time to join 4-H. New members welcome! Come and check-out some of these new clubs and learn more about 4-H!

- Electric SPIN Club - Thursday, February 8, 4:30 p.m.

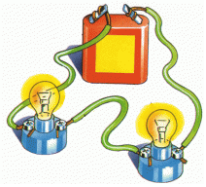
Experiments and activities that let you explore electric basics, circuits, and the science beyond robotics. Members are expected to work on the electric project book (like a workbook) as they come to club meetings. A county winning project book could earn you a trip to Electric Congress 2019!



Ages: 9 and older
Meetings: 2nd Thursday of each month, 4:30-6:00 pm
Cost: $5 for electric project book
Location: Agriculture Resources Center
1175 South Brady Ave, Newton

- Going GLOBAL with 4-H - Monday, February 12, 6:30 p.m.

Join this new 4-H club and explore different cultures and countries of the world as you make new 4-H friends. Programs could include geography, crafts, ethnic foods, guest speakers and more! There will be small charge for this club to cover program materials and the charge will be discussed at the first meeting.

Ages: 5 and older welcome, but those 10 and under must have a parent helper at each meeting. All parents welcome.
Meetings: 2nd Monday evening of each month
Location: Agriculture Resources Center, 1175 South Brady Ave, Newton

- Jr. Rangers 4-H Club - Monday, February 12, 6:00 p.m.

This long-time club will be starting a new Outdoor Survival series for 2018. Programs with George Place (Extension Director and Backpacking enthusiast) mixed in wildlife/nature programs from Lori Owenby, Park Ranger. Some of the monthly topics include: Fire and Staying Warm Outside, Naturalist 101, Native Bees, Food and Water on the Trail, Survival Skillathon, and more. No cost.

Ages: 5 and older welcome, but suggested for those 9 and older.
Meetings: Riverbend County Park, 6700 North NC 16 Highway, Conover.
The club meets in the educational building by the parking lot.
